Saturday, August 25. 1722.

THE following Address of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to His Majesty by William Carr, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Scarborough Lord Lieutenant of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, and the rest of the Common Council of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne in the County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects having daily Experience of your consummate Wisdom and Goodness, and being duly sensible of the many Benefits and Blessings we enjoy, and may hope for under your most Gracious and Auspicious Reign, do most humbly crave Leave to assure your Majesty of our continued Attachment to your most sacred Person and Government, at this time, when your Majesty hath received repeated and unquestionable Advices, that several of your Subjects, forgetting the Allegiance they owe your sacred Majesty as well as the natural Love they ought to bear their Country, have entered into a wicked Conspiracy, in Concert with Traytors Abroad, for raising a Rebellion in this your Kingdom in Favour of a Popish Pretender, with a traitorous Design to overthrow our excellent Constitution in Church and State: But no Threatnings from Abroad, no Factions or Rebellions at Home, shall ever deter us from giving you the most sincere and utmost Demonstration of our unalterable Loyalty and Affection, and that there is nothing so dear to us which we shall not cheerfully part withal in Defence of your Majesty's just Right and Title to the Crowns of these Realms.

Given under the Seal of the said Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, this Sixteenth Day of July, in the Eighth Year of your Majesty most glorious Reign over us, Anno Dom. 1722.

The following Address has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Hertford.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Marlborough.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of this your ancient Corporation of Marlborough, assembled at our Quarter Sessions on Friday the 13th Day of July, in the Eighth Year of your Majesty's Reign, beg Leave to lay at your Majesty's Feet our sincere and hearty Congratulations for the early Prevention of that most unnatural and hellish Plot, contrived against your Royal Person and Government, by your own Subjects, who have entered into this wicked Conspiracy in Concert with Traytors abroad, for raising a detestable Rebellion in favour of a Popish Pretender, with traitorous Designs to overthrow our excellent Constitution both in Church and State.

This timely Discovery, dread Sir, we attribute alone to the Vigilance of your self, and those you have so wisely chosen to execute your just Commands: This we look upon as a fresh Proof of your Majesty's unwearied Care and Watchfulness over your People, and another Instance of your having always in your Thought the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects; and since you, Sir, who by your personal Solicitations abroad, have made Peace with all your neighbouring Nations, and by it secured to us our Trade at home, and every Blessing that can be wish'd for under so mild a Government; it would appear stupid as well as ungrateful in us, not to be sensible of this Happiness; and since so many Blessings are owing alone to your Majesty's Care and Protection, we cannot but abhor those, who in Defiance of the solemn Oaths they have taken to your Majesty, are still (out of their restless Temper) giving new Disturbances, by raising Discontents among their Fellow Subjects, and declare that we will on all Occasions be ready to serve your Majesty to the utmost of our Power and Abilities.

Wishing you may have a long and prosperous Reign over us, and may transmit your Crown, with all your Princely Virtues, in the same Protestant Line to all future Generations.

London, August 25.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

Lisbon, July 23. The Queen has begun the Nine Days Devotions of St. Anne, in the Church of the Holy Ghost belonging to the Oratorian Fryars. The Infante Don Carlos, Prince of Portugal, who was slightly indisposed last Week, set out Yesterday with the Marchioness de Ste. Croix, Governess of the Infantea, and with Don Joseph de Gama, Director of the Queen's Household, to take the Air at a Country Seat belonging to Don Antonio de Macedo, Alcaide Major of the Frontier. On the 17th Instant, all the Orders of Fryars in this City went in Procession to the Church of the Royal Monastery of St. Eloy, to assist at the solemn Service for the Repose of the Soul of Don Francisco de St. Jerome, late Bishop of Rio de Janeiro, who died some Months ago at his Diocese.

Paris, Aug. 29. The Chevalier d'Orleans, Grand Prior of France, is appointed to Conduct Mademoiselle de Beaujolois to the Frontiers of Spain, as is likewise the Dutchess de Villars Brancas: But 'tis now discourd that this Princess does not leave this Kingdom till January next; that she is then to proceed directly to Barcelona, where the Spanish Court will be at that time, and that the Prince Don Carlos and his future Spouse having continued there some Days, will embark for Italy, in order to be brought up in the Court of Parma. The Order that occasioned the Regiment of French Guards to encamp the 24th Instant in the Morning at the Plain des Sablons, was given only to prove whether or no that Regiment had got every thing ready against their designed March for Rheims. The Parliament was not sent for to Versailles, as was expected it would; it is said now, that the King will come hither to hold his Bed of Justice, and that the Parliament will be prorogued for a Month on this Occasion. The publick Execution of of the Castilians began again here a few Days ago; some Men and Women were hanged, several Criminals were Whipt and Branded, and others sent to the Gallies. The noted Du Chatelet, who helped in the taking of Cartouche, and thereby procured to himself the Favour of perpetual Imprisonment in lieu of worse Punishment for his Crimes, attempted his Escape out of Prison the 23d Instant, with four of his Accomplices, by wrenching two Iron Bars from the Grate where they lay in hold, but in their further Passage they were stoppt by another Grate, were retaken and clost up into closer Confinement: 'tis believed this Attempt of Du Chatelet will be judged a forfeiture of his Imprisonment for Life, and lay him open to the due Execution which his Crimes have deserved. The Marquis de Saillans was married to Mademoiselle de Maulevrier Colbert the 22d in the Morning; the Marechal de Tesse, the Bride's Grandfather, was at the Expence of the Wedding. The Bishop of Leon is now recovered from his late Illness, but it being discovered that he had the Stone, he is determined to be cut for that Distemper the next Month. The late Rumour that the Cardinal Prime Minister appointed M. de Montequiou to be his Captain of Guards, was groundless; and 'tis not believed he will immediately have any; 'tis true that an Officer did proffer his Service in that Respect to the Cardinal, who thanked him, but has not yet made Choice of any Body. It is reported that the President Dodun has laid down his Office of Comptroller General of the Finances, and that M. Pelletier des Portes is to Counterfign the Cardinal Minister's Dispatches. The Deputies of the States of Languedoc had an Audience of the King the 19th Instant, being presented by the Marquis de la Parre Lieutenant General of the Province, and by the Marquis de la Vrilliere Secretary of State, and conducted by the Marquis de Dreux Grand Master, and by M. Desgranges Master of the Ceremonies; at which time they presented their Province Book of Imposts to his Majesty. The Deputation was composed of the Bishop of St. Papoul for the Clergy, who was Speaker; the Baron de Lenta for the Nobility; and by Messrs. Guy and Astruc, ancient Magistrates of Toulouse, for the Common People; and by M. Joubert, Syndic General of the Province. The Academy of Sciences and Polite Literature celebrated the Festival of St. Lewis in the Church of the Oratorian Fathers, and Father Champion of that Order spoke the Anniversary Euclogium upon the Saint.
